

What I need to know about CANCER

If your doctor tells you that you have cancer...

It may feel stressful, sad and overwhelming.

Sometimes information can be confusing.

If you have found out you have cancer, would you like some support?

Click on the pictures on the next page for information that can help you.

Macmillan – Finding out you have cancer

A short easy read booklet

Macmillan – What is cancer?

A short easy read booklet

Easy read information about common cancer symptoms and treatments

Books Beyond Words

Easy read books about better understanding your health.

These resources are trusted by the following organisations:

If you have any questions about any of the information provided in these resources, please speak to your named nurse

To access this document on your smart phone - please scan the QR code

If you can't read this information on a phone or computer please ask your health professional to print this information or order you a booklet.

